

Constitutionality Of School Closing To Be Tested

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (UPI) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus' closure of Little Rock's high schools in the face of a Supreme Court order to integrate them headed for a test of constitutionality today.

The citizen who demanded the test is paradoxically, a staunch segregationist. She is Mrs. Gertrude Garrett, wife of a fireman.

SHE ALSO ASKED a state court for an injunction to prevent Faubus from closing the schools. He has 20 days to answer the suit.

Shortly after Faubus signed a bill enabling him to close the schools, Pulaski County Sheriff Tom Galley served the governor with a petition for a declaratory judgment on the new law.

Being ordered closed, in fact, never having opened, didn't affect the football team at Central High, the school that is the crux of the dispute.

Central High played West Monroe, La., High Friday night and won its 34th straight game, 20-14.

THE VICE CHAIRMAN of the school board said that even though the board will obey Faubus it wanted to do what it could to get the schools opened again, "because we are interested in the children, not politics."

He indicated the school board is willing for them to be reopened as private schools.

Faubus closed all four of Little Rock's high schools — three white, one Negro — late Friday to prevent an "impending violent situation."

AT LEAST A BY-PRODUCT of his action was the thwarting of the Supreme Court's orders Friday to integrate them immediately, with Negro students.

Faubus ordered a special election in the Little Rock School District for Oct. 7 to determine whether the people want them reopened.

But it was not expected that the schools will remain closed to about 4,000 students until after the election.

BOTH THE DEPARTMENT of Justice and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People may go to court in an effort to make Faubus reopen the schools.

"Of course that closure was one of the possibilities that has been under study," Stephen C. Bransford, spokesman for the Department of Justice staff in Little Rock, said.

"I am sure that our attorneys must have anticipated the possibility of this sort of thing and will be ready to take whatever action is needed," Clarence A. Laws, Southwest field secretary of the NAACP, said.

U.S. Demands Russia Tell Fate of Missing 11 Airmen

MOSCOW (UPI) — American authorities demanded today Russia disclose the fate of 11 men missing from the unarmed U. S. Air Force transport forced down Sept. 2 in Soviet Armenia.

U. S. Charge d'Affaires Richard E. Davis demanded also the Russians let American experts inspect the wreckage of the C-130 turboprop transport.

HE ASKED WHAT arrangements the Russians were making to return the six bodies they admitted finding in the "burned-out aircraft."

The Soviet government formally notified U. S. authorities Friday the plane, carrying a crew of 17 on a radio-spy flight, "crashed" 35 miles north of Yerevan, the Armenian capital.

It said the bodies of six men, "evidently those of the crew," were found in the wreckage. The announcement gave no clue to the whereabouts of the other 11 men aboard the plane.

WHEN THE BIG turboprop transport vanished 11 days ago, U. S. Air Force headquarters in Europe said it had been detached from its regular base in Germany to take part in a world-wide study of radio-wave propagation.

OFFICERS HAVE TROUBLE, MUST DRINK ON THE JOB

ROCHESTER, Ind., (UPI) — Indiana Excise Tax Police Chief George Rinck is having trouble keeping his officers here sober and may pull the district office out of the city.

Rinck said excise agents sometimes have to drink in public bars in connection with their investigations of liquor law violations. Two of them were arrested for drunkenness recently by the sheriff.

"I can't do anything with the sheriff. He is the law in that county," Rinck said Friday.

Makes Him Sick

Truman Cites 'Failures' of GOP

OMAHA, Neb. (UPI) — Former President Harry S. Truman told a cheering crowd of midwestern Democrats Friday night that failure of the Republican administration to maintain America's international prestige "almost makes me sick."

The former Chief Executive said his concern over this nation's "deteriorated" position is so deep that "I almost blow up and talk a way that I shouldn't in public."

TRUMAN was reading a Democratic "indictment" of the GOP record for the last six years. He said the Republicans have "lost the confidence of our allies" and "made enemies out of former neutral nations who wanted to be our friends."

"They have allowed the Communists to make gains all around the world," the self-described "retired Missouri farmer" told more than 12,000 party members at the Midwest Democratic conference.

"AT THE SAME time, they have kept our military defenses from growing as fast as the military strength of the Communist bloc. The Soviet Union is now ahead of us in developing one of the most important kinds of weapons."

In asking for a greater Democratic majority in the next Congress and for election of a Democratic president in 1960, Truman praised the party's "young senators" and singled out two who were on the platform with him, John F. Kennedy (Mass.) and Ralph Yarborough (Texas).

Sen. Estes Kefauver, (Tenn.), favored by Nebraska Primary election voters for the presidency in 1952, also was on the Omaha civic auditorium platform and gulped visibly when his name was left out.

Ike Appeals Directly to Khrushchev To Intercede With Chinese Reds

U.S. Escorted Convoy Lands Some Supplies

At Quemoy 23 Minutes Before Spotted by Reds

TAIPEI, Formosa (UPI) — A U.S.-escorted Chinese convoy landed "some" supplies on Communist-blockaded Quemoy Island early today before it was driven off by a Red "saturation barrage," it was announced here.

There was no report of casualties or damage to the convoy or its American escort destroyers, which remained outside the three-mile limit.

A SPOKESMAN at U. S. headquarters said four LSM's spent 23 minutes on shell-pocked Liao Lu Beach before observers on the Red-held mainland spotted them and called for a crushing artillery bombardment.

The spokesman did not say how much cargo got ashore.

The Defense Ministry said Red batteries hurled 7,035 shells at the landing beach in 50 minutes, averaging well over two shells a second.

THE BEACH WAS so badly chopped up by the bombardment that a two-engine C-46 transport which had hoped to land 13 passengers on the Liao Lu airstrip at 7 a. m. had to turn back.

Passengers aboard the plane included at least three U.S. newsmen—columnist Joseph Alsop, Jim Bell of the New York Times and Keyes Beech of the Chicago Daily News. Also on board was Ralph Harwood, a U. S. aid official.

Other passengers included six Chinese soldiers and a Chinese nurse.

THE PLANE WAS recalled before it reached Quemoy, as a result of reports that the landing strip was unusable. The transport itself was not fired on.

Th U. S. spokesman was enthusiastic about the convoy landing.

"This was the best run so far," he said. "I feel better about this one than previous attempts. Our objective remains the resupply of Quemoy."

Cyclist Killed While Family Is Watching

MELBOURNE (UPI) — Russell Mockeridge, 30, Australia's greatest professional cyclist, was killed before the horrified eyes of his wife and their young daughter in a road-race accident today.

Mockeridge was swerving out to avoid a stopping car when his bicycle skidded and dumped him in front of a bus. The bus, unable to stop, ran over his head.

WOMEN FIND NEW HAZARD ON GOLF COURSE

PETOSKEY, Mich. (UPI) — There's a spikehorn on the loose in the Petoskey area and the local golfing gals are more than a bit concerned.

The young deer, it seems, has a dislike for women golfers. Petoskey's Winter Sports Council keeps the buck in a pen as a tourist attraction. But the spikehorn has escaped twice in the past two weeks.

Both times, the deer headed straight for the Bay View Country Club and interrupted ladies at play.

The latest escapade involved Mrs. Harry Levinson, of Petoskey, who was lining up a putt when the deer ran up.

Mrs. Levinson tried to discourage the unwelcome guest. When she bent down to putt, the spikehorn charged like a billy goat and butted her. Then the deer picked up her ball and started off with it.

Four men finally came to the rescue of Mrs. Levinson and chased the deer into a woods. Golf has its hazards.

'Brilliant Student' Program To Be Started This Year

Students Selected By Tests

Palm Springs school officials will inaugurate a new pilot program for "more capable learners" when classes open for the fall term Monday.

Schools Supt. Dwight Twist said the new program, geared to step up the curriculum for "academically talented pupils," will include several new courses for advanced students.

DR. TWIST SAID the new program will be headed by Miss Lee Ewalt, distinguished specialist in this field, who will serve as consultant and will assist teachers in planning for more capable learners in their classes.

The term "more capable learner" is used by a school district committee assigned to study the problem for a pupil whose achievements are at least one year above his grade level.

This new program, Dr. Twist said, followed studies made by a committee composed of teachers and administrators, who started charting a five to 10-year program for more capable learners.

ACHIEVEMENT TESTS were given to sixth grade pupils during the past year. Test results showed that 92 pupils were performing above their grade levels.

TO RECHECK the accuracy of these tests, a different battery of tests will be given during the first week of school, according to Mrs. Mary Mitchell, director of instruction.

IT IS EXPECTED that three classes will be established for capable learners at the seventh grade level. Pupils will be added to these classes as they show necessary achievement. Classes planned during last

School Cafeteria To Open First Day, Monday

All cafeterias in the Palm Springs Unified School District will open with full-scale programs for the first day of school Monday.

Assistant Schools Supt. John Miles said that traditionally popular "Type A" lunches, offering fully balanced meals, will be available for the high school, junior high and all elementary grades.

Miles said an a la carte lunch has also been planned for the junior and senior high school cafeterias.

The Type A lunch will be served for 35 cents, milk included. Children who bring their own lunches may purchase milk for five cents.

Debbie to File

Divorce Action Planned in Week

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Actress Debbie Reynolds probably will file for divorce from singer Eddie Fisher next week — and no one will be spared in the court action, including actress Elizabeth Taylor.

Hollywood's "ideal marriage" tumbled to earth after three years of ballyhooed publicity Friday with statements by Eddie and Debbie and the straight talk of a lawyer.

THE COUP DE GRACE was delivered by the 26-year-old actress's lawyer Frank B. Elcher, who was the first to mention divorce publicly.

He said a suit would be filed "probably next week" and that Miss Reynolds would file it—not Fisher.

Asked if actress Elizabeth Taylor, 26-year-old mother of three children and veteran of three marriages, would be named co-respondent, Belcher said:

"I'M NOT GOING to spare anyone if it is necessary to protect the rights of Debbie and her two fine children."

Belcher went on to blast a statement released earlier in the day by Fisher in which the singer said the blame for the breakup was his alone and that it was inevitable and had nothing to do with Miss Taylor.

"There is nothing magnanimous about Eddie assuming the blame for this tragedy," Belcher declared. "That's exactly where the responsibility rest. So far as I personally am concerned, his attempt to relieve Miss Taylor from any responsibility falls on completely deaf ears."

Drive Safely--School Starts Monday, Is Appeal Today

Palm Springs police today joined the Palm Springs Safety Council in a major campaign designed to urge motorists to exercise extra caution after schools open Monday.

Making full use of newspapers, personal lecture programs, radio, and poster displays, safety officials hope to hammer home the need for extreme caution as children by the hundreds once again appear in school crosswalks.

POLICE CHIEF August Kettmann said his traffic division is cooperating fully with the Safety Council, explaining that "we are anxious to continue our city's very excellent traffic safety record."

Chief Kettmann said his men will visit schools to lecture school children on safety rules and that "drive slow" buttons are being distributed by local service stations as reminders for resort motorists.

AS A GUIDE to school district motorists, the Safety Council offered the following suggestions and regulations for traffic safety: On school days, particularly between the hours of 8 and 9 a. m., 11:30 a. m. and 1 p. m., and 2:30 p. m. and 4 p. m., motorists are advised to adhere to the 25 mile an hour speed limit when passing schools.

MOTORISTS ARE cautioned to watch for stopped school buses. Drivers must stop if red flashing lights are in operation on the bus and they are warned not to drive past the bus.

Parents are advised to check school bus schedules, appearing in today's Desert Sun, for the bus arrival time at their children's particular stop.

GEORGE BOND, school transportation supervisor, suggested that children arrive no earlier than three minutes before the scheduled time of bus arrival.

Bond also advised parents whose children are just starting school to have their youngsters escorted to school or the bus stop by an older child.

Parents were cautioned to "choose the safest route for your child to walk when he goes to and from school bus stops."

Disclaims Responsibility For Crisis

Warns That U. S. Forces There to Assist in Defense

NEWPORT, R. I. (UPI)—President Eisenhower today appealed directly to Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev to urge Chinese Red leaders "to discontinue their military operations and to turn to a policy of peaceful settlement of the Taiwan-Formosa dispute."

In a 700-word letter to Khrushchev, Eisenhower said that if the Chinese Reds "can be persuaded to place their trust in negotiations and a readiness to practice conciliation," the United States will "strive in that spirit earnestly to the same end."

THE UNITED STATES hopes that an understanding can be arranged through renewed ambassadorial talks with Red China that "will assure that there will be no resort to the use of force in the Formosa crisis, the President said.

Eisenhower bluntly told Khrushchev that the main issue was whether the Chinese Reds would "accept the vital requisites of moral peace and order in a nuclear age and renounce the use of force as a means for satisfying their territorial claims." He said the off-shore islands never have been under the control of the Chinese Reds.

THE PRESIDENT warned that U. S. forces were in the Formosa area to fulfill commitments to Nationalist China to assist in defense of Formosa and the Pescadore Islands.

"They are there to help resist aggression — not to commit aggression," the President said.

"No upside-down presentation such as contained in your letter can change this fact."

EISENHOWER'S LETTER was in reply to a letter from Khrushchev received here last Monday. Khrushchev accused the United States of aggression in the Formosa area and called for the withdrawal of all U. S. armed forces now there, and said any attack on Communist China would be considered an attack on the Soviet Union.

Without replying directly, the President made clear that he has no intention of pulling out the U. S. forces until the Chinese Reds cease their aggressive military moves and agree to a negotiated settlement of the crisis.

IT WAS THE THIRD major U. S. warning in 10 days against any attempt by the Chinese Reds to take the Nationalist-held off-shore islands by force.

The President agreed with Khrushchev that the Formosa Strait situation was "dangerous." But Eisenhower disagreed as to "the source of danger in this situation."

"The present state tension in the Taiwan area was created directly by Chinese Communist action, not by that of the Republic of China or by the United States," the President said.

Rotarians Hear Of New Boys Club Facilities

CATHEDRAL CITY — Ray Lockwood, executive director of the Palm Springs Boys Club, spoke before the members of Cathedral City Rotary Club and visiting Rotarians at the regular luncheon meeting at Laurie's Steak Ranch.

Lockwood stressed the importance of the Boys Club to the community and pointed out that the Boys Club was not for Palm Springs alone but for the boys of the entire Desert Area, between the ages of eight and 16 who could avail themselves of the many opportunities offered in outdoor athletic activities, arts and crafts and social recreation.

Using a floor plan of the building, he explained the advantages of the separate rooms for the various activities and the study rooms where the boys can do their home work. The older members will have their own area separate from the younger boys.

The Boys Clubs of America regard the advantages offered in their program as the tools which they use in their guidance program. Membership of $1 a year entitles a boy to avail himself of any or all of the activities. Lockwood extended an invitation to all boys of the area to become members of the new Palm Springs Boys Club.

Construction Now Started On New Saks Store Here

Construction is under way today on the new Palm Springs store for Saks Fifth Avenue.

Work on the new building, expected to cost in excess of $200,000, was started this week at 940 South Palm Canyon Drive by Jackson Brothers, Los Angeles contractors.

THE TWO-LEVEL store building was described as "the focal point" of a multimillion dollar project owned by Arthur Gilbert and Edward Rothschild, Beverly Hills developers.

Gilbert and Rothschild also plan construction of 25,000 square feet of stores for "comparable tenants" on the adjacent portion of the property, according to Jack Matthes, general manager of Saks' Palm Springs and Beverly Hills units.

SAKS PALM SPRINGS, to be characterized by a "modified Indian motif," is located on the northeast corner of Palm Canyon Drive and Ramon Road. The Saks store will occupy 117 feet of the project's 400 foot frontage on Palm Canyon Drive and 300 feet on Ramon Road.

MATTHESS SAID the contemporary store building was designed by the architectural firm of Welton Becket and Associates. The development is being leased through Coldwell Banker and Company, Matthes said.

Gilbert and Rothschild purchased the property for their project early in 1958 from Mrs. Pearl M. McManus, of the pioneer Palm Springs family and one of the largest land owners in the area, Matthes said.

'Substance' to Be Sermon Topic Here Sunday

Can true substance be both spirit and matter? Or is real substance spiritual and matter a counterfeit? Such are the challenging questions dealt with in all Christian Science services on Sunday. The Lesson Sermon is on "Substance."

Paul's letter to Titus is read in part from the Bible. Paul admonishes, "Unto the pure all things are pure; but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure; . . . But speak thou the things which become sound doctrine: . . . In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works" (1:15; 2:1, 7).

A companion reference from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy reads, "To divest thought of false trusts and material evidences in order that the spiritual facts of being may appear,—this is the great attainment by means of which we shall sweep away the false and give place to the true" (p. 429).

The Golden Text declares in the words of Paul, "The things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal" (II Cor. 4:18).

Noted Organist to Present Concert Music at Service

The Palm Springs Church of Religious Science, with worship services at the Village Theater will welcome into the activity organist Con Maffie starting Sunday, Sept. 14.

Maffie will play a quarter-hour of organ concert music prior to the regular meditation period and the service. He has been heard professionally for many years, beginning as a solo organist for Loews Inc., in New York City.

"THERE MUST BE a reason that some prayers are answered and others appear to be ignored," Rev. Caldwell said in announcing the topic.

"Certainly we may not say that the God to whom we have long addressed our prayers is capricious. Rather we are to understand that the immutable principles of the universe are the same, yesterday, today and forever."

"Then the intermittent quality of what we term our success in praying must lie in the attitude with which we perform the act of contact with the Universal Spirit."

It is to this premise that the lesson is dedicated at 11 o'clock, following Maffie's concert at 10:30, the meditation with organ background at 10:45.

Plain Tale About Formosa

Madame Chiang Kai-shek called me today in my Pacific Palisades, Calif., home just before her departure for the East, and solemnly discussed her latest information on the crisis in the Formosa Straits.

"The Communists," she said, "are committed to take the offshore islands . . . Tungkong, Kinnment (Quemoy), Matsu . . . as a prelude to invasion of the Pescadores and Formosa. Only a strong statement from the President or Secretary Dulles that these islands will be defended by joint action of the U.S. and the Republic of China can prevent the invasion."

I ASKED HER ABOUT the possibility of Communist failure to invade the offshore islands. "You visited our fortifications on the islands a number of times, as arranged by my husband, Mr. Morley, and you know our strength," she replied.

"Logistically we are handicapped because our supplies must come from Taiwan some 130 miles, while the Communists will be fighting from bases of only five to ten miles away."

AS A RESULT OF Madame Chiang Kai-shek's public utterances in the U. S. in recent weeks on the importance of defending the Formosa Straits, and the hope of keeping Communist China out of the United Nations, questions have again been raised as to the wisdom of our decision to protect Formosa and to keep Red China out of the U. N. Also the reasons of the Nationalists for defending the offshore islands now again under military pressure.

This last question is the most simple to answer. Quemoy, for example, is an island in the center of the inlet to the important Communist harbor city of Amoy. By controlling the waters to Amoy the Communists are forced to bypass it by hundreds of miles to the North to avoid damage or capture of their cargo ships.

THE NATIONALIST navy and the garrison at Quemoy are a constant threat to Communist shipping. Another reason is the question of prestige. The Communist Chinese want to eliminate the Nationalists from the offshore islands which are as close as two miles from Communist soil, as is the case of Little Quemoy to the port of Amoy.

It is not difficult to understand the position of Red China in desiring to eliminate an enemy as close as two miles from its frontier, especially when it is committed to taking Formosa by force. Realistically speaking, it has been an untenable position for the Reds over the past ten years to have an enemy harassing them so close to home, both psychologically and realistically.

THE QUESTION of keeping Red China out of the United Nations is becoming more and more difficult, especially since the recognition of the revolutionary government of Iraq. Here is a comparison that makes our foreign policy precarious. In the case of Iraq we have given diplomatic recognition and are now in the process of extending a $150,000,000 loan, to a regime which came into power by murdering King Feisal and government officials, instead of by legal process and orderly choice of the people.

This has been the official reason of the U. S. in refusing to recognize Communist China . . . because Communism came into power by revolution, murder, conspiracy, deceit, and not by the free choice of the Chinese people. Our position, therefore, is now more difficult to explain to the rest of the world than ever before.

ON THIS MOST important question . . . the reason the U. S. is spending millions in the defense of Formosa . . . the nation is miserably uninformed. Most of those against defending Formosa and the Republic of China are of the opinion that we are doing so because we like the Chiang Kai-sheks . . . or because we dislike Mao Tse-tung and the Communists on the mainland. This is only a very small part of the answer.

The main reason we are committed to the defense of Formosa and the Pescadores is that these islands are necessary to the defense and security of the United States . . . and the security of our friends and allies around the perimeter who are a part of this network of defense.

THE FALL OF Formosa to Communism will greatly endanger, according to the President and our highest military authorities, the security and survival of the Philippines, Indonesia, Thailand, Indo-China, Okinawa, Korea, Hong Kong and Japan. For Formosa, according to our strategists, is also the first line of defense of Guam, Wake, Panama Canal, the Hawaiian Islands and the West Coast of the United States. This is the military defense appraisal of Formosa by those who should know. It is the realistic military reason we have poured so much military equipment and manpower through MAAG in Formosa.

It is academic to attempt to prejudice the full intentions of the Communists in attacking the offshore islands . . . or whether we should include them in our defense of Formosa and the Pescadores. The Reds have repeatedly announced their intentions of invading Formosa. It appears certain that invasion of the offshore islands will be but a prelude to an invasion of the Pescadores and Formosa.

THERE ARE ALSO political and diplomatic reasons for the U. S. defense of the offshore islands. So long as Formosa exists as a Free China stronghold, it is a constant reminder of the rape of China by Communism . . . and a living beach head of the Free World in the Far East. For millions of Chinese on and off the mainland look to Formosa as a symbol of liberation. The removal of this symbol will also remove the last bastion of hope against Communism in all the Far East . . . and with it the security, defense and prestige of the United States and the Free World. The pleas and warnings of courageous Madame Chiang Kai-shek in our midst transcend the interests of the Free Chinese people . . . in favor of the crucial interests of all free men.

Nine Corners for the Court

WASHINGTON, D. C.—"Leave her to Heaven," was the ghost's instruction to Hamlet concerning his sinful mother. Heaven, the ultimate tribunal where human passions count for naught, is the place to try cases where passions cloud the facts.

Such a trial took place, if you're asking me, when the State Chief Justices recently met at Pasadena and read the Law back to the Supreme Court of the United States.

RELATIVELY FEW Americans had the time or opportunity in the crisis-crowded newspapers to follow this trial or to study the judgment which was handed down. But I find that the Sept. 1 issue of the newsletter "Human Events" (408 First Street, SE, Washington 3, D.C.) has published the report of the Conference of Chief Justices in its essential parts.

All the American States except Maine will be electing some of their neighbors to public office in November. Nobody who reads this report in whatever form can fail to inform or refresh his mind. There are hot and current sparks from that cold and stable rock, the American Constitution.

BUT FIRST, LET us recall that the Supreme Court was brought to trial earlier this year by a this-side-of-heaven tribunal, the U. S. Senate. From January to August, important Senators from the Deep South to New England and from the Midwest to the West Coast, did their utmost to bring off a trial and a conviction.

The charge against the Supreme Court was, in brief, that "legislated" and thereby "usurped" the Constitutional function of Congress and the State legislatures. The House of Representatives did pass a Court-curbing bill. But the real fight for "censure" came in the closing days of the 85th Senate, which missed fastening obloquy on "the Warren Court" by the closest possible vote, 41 to 40.

BUT WITH the legislators gone home, it is possible to see, and proper to admit that those furious slaves of passion and politics, an election-season Congressional membership, are not the last word in objectivity.

By the blessing of our check-and-balance form of government, another jurist turned up in the Convention of Chief Justices. Here was a jury of peers to try the case of Constitution vs. Supreme Court. Here, in a valid manner of speaking, "was the wise and impartial judgement of Heaven." What follows is admittedly a crew-cut digest of a summary; but let it serve until something better meets the reader's eye.

THE UNITED STATES Supreme Court was indicted for lack of judicial "self-restraint" by a bill of particulars signed by 10 Chief Justices who made the report, seven of them being non-Southerners. This report was adopted by a Convention vote of 36 to 8, with two States abstaining and three being absent.

The Chief Justices said that their "respect for law" outweighed any "obligation of silence" concerning Supreme Court decisions which seemed offensive to the Constitution. There followed some wise passages:

forces, in saying the nullity is prepared to use nuclear weapons against Red aggression if authorized by the President.

"This fact and my forces in the Far East are the great points in the deterrent forces of the United States."

FORT WAYNE, Ind.—Former President Truman, in a speech before Indiana Democrats: "We have not made much progress in developing ways by which men and nations can live together in peace. That is too

"THE DIFFERENCE between matters primarily local and matters primarily national was the guiding principle upon which the framers of our national Constitution acted . . .

" . . . the expansion of the power of the national Government . . . is wholly unavoidable . . . on the other hand our Constitution does envision federalism. The very name of our Nation indicates that it is to be composed of states . . . Second only to the increasing dominance of the national Government has been the development of the immense power of the Supreme Court . . .

THE REPORT THEN reviews disputed cases as Pennsylvania vs. Nelson, Sweezy vs. New Hampshire and Konigsberg vs. State Bar of California. These cases involved, respectively, a State's right to pass anti-subversion laws, to investigate persons and institutions for the purpose of considering anti-subversion laws, to stipulate high character and loyalty as necessary qualifications for admission to the State bar.

The gist of the report seems to lie in these two sentences: "It has long been an American boast that we have a government of laws and not of men. We believe that any study of recent decisions of the Supreme Court will raise at least considerable doubt as to the validity of that boast."

No punishment was meted out. But when the Supreme Court goes back into regular session the nine justices ought to find nine corners and stand there with hanging heads until they are old enough to be better behaved.

—Holmes Alexander

bad, because it may mean total destruction of the whole human race, by fire, as the old Hebrew prophet told us."

OMAHA, Neb.—Millionaire Winthrop Rockefeller, in calling for progress against racial discrimination:

"We must remember that even were integrated schools to become a reality tomorrow, there would still be racial discrimination in employment, health, housing, the professions and opportunities."

HUTCHINSON, Kan.

Thursday, 9-11

Here I am about 1,500 miles from Palm Springs all set for Bedroom E and sound slumber.

ANOTHER RESTFUL DAY although a spot of trouble with that female portable which I borrowed from Mrs. G.

The way I clobber it, it won't stay put even in a quiet room. When you add the sway of the train, it almost gets out of hand.

Like when we swing around a left curve, the right side of the car goes up and vice versa for a right curve.

They call that "cant" and when it cants, I can't.

GEOFFREY is most helpful. He's the man in charge of this car.

At least, that must be his name. The sign on one end of the car says so. On the other end — of the car — it says "Dining Car in Opposite Direction."

Jeff (my, I'm getting familiar) said that if he didn't have so many old people to take care of, he'd come in and hold the type-writer down while I wrote.

WONDERED if there was anything personal in that "old people" but was too smart to ask. I suggested that we get some nails and nail the thing down to the table.

Jeff wasn't in favor of the idea. "The Pullman people might not like it," he demurred. Then he had a bright idea. "In a few minutes," he told me, "we'll be on the longest stretch of straight track in the United States. Sixty-seven miles without a curve."

HOW MUCH time is that, I asked.

He told me about 37 minutes so I went back to see Percy in the club car while waiting for what the brakie told me was a 67-mile tangent.

Percy seemed worried. He kept looking out of the window up at the dark sky.

"Looks like rain," I said helpfully.

"IT AIN'T the rain," he replied. "I'm looking for a funnel."

"Why do you need a funnel?" I asked. "We've got that long straight stretch coming up, no curves, the car won't sway and the glasses seem big enough."

"Not that kind of funnel, the kind that comes out of the sky and raises hob here in the Midwest," he said.

IT'S DARK now and you can't see the wheat fields or those tall elevators besides the track at every station and we've hit that straight stretch.

No more cant so I can and by the time we get to Topeka they won't be able to distinguish the purr of the big Diesels up front from the purr from Bedroom E.

Tomorrow — Chicago.

Dear Abby . . .

DEAR ABBY: Everyone in our office howled over the letter from the woman who complained because her husband was getting bald and had a crew cut thereby making him look like a picked chicken. Our boss is also balding, but he won't face it. He hangs onto the few very long wisps of hair he has, drapes them around his head in a most artistic fashion. He looks positively ridiculous! On him a crew cut would look better.

THE OFFICE GANG

DEAR ABBY: I seldom write to newspapers but this little item has been bothering me for a long time and I thought if you'd mention it in your column it might do some good. I work in the Circulation department of a newspaper. So many carriers have trouble collecting their money. Some customers make the boys come back three and four times. Don't these people realize that the carriers are in business for themselves and they have to pay for the newspapers whether they collect their money on time or not? If they knew how hard those boys work to get their collections in on time, they would think twice before turning them away. This goes for all newspaper boys — whether they are 6 or 60. Give those kids a break, Abby, and print this.

GRACE U.

DEAR GRACE: "By the Grace of Grace — it's printed. Happy collecting, boys!"

DEAR ABBY: I am a boy 14 and have a job (if you want to call it that) for the summer. My father told me to go to a certain place and apply for a job. I got it without any trouble. There is nothing for me to do here and I am only in the way. I heard from one of the girls who works here that my father is paying my salary. I would rather have played baseball this summer. What do you make of a deal like this?

IN THE WAY

DEAR IN: Your father "meant well" but he was off base a country mile in the way he handled the situation. "Cooked up" jobs for youngsters are a handicap to those who fall heir to them. A boy who doesn't have what it takes to get a job of his own doesn't deserve to have one.

I would be remiss if I did not express my appreciation for the press coverage extended to the Palm Springs schools during the past few years. As I wind up my stay here in Palm Springs as your superintendent of schools, I want to also convey my best wishes for a good school year which is about to begin.

Your assistance in the past in getting the schools off to a good start has been most helpful and I trust that this same high level of cooperation will continue.

Please extend my gratitude for all the considerations to the staff of the Desert Sun and Radio Station KDES.

EARL WILSON:

Revised Version

NEW YORK — It had been whispered around Broadway that the Jackie Gleason who returns soon to live TV will be a "new Gleason" who has joined the anti-salon league and considers anybody who would stay out beyond 11 p.m. to be definitely loathsome.

"They even said you were feuding with Toots Shor," I pointed out one recent afternoon.

"I'm not mad at Blubber," cried Gleason, waving one finger at a mustache he has grown for a Playhouse 90 show, "The Time of Your Life," in which he plays a barfly.

"I'll prove it — when I shave this thing off I'm going to send it to Toots in an envelope," Jackie said.

"Toots," he went on, "is like a dame. If you don't call him on the phone, he gets mad. I didn't see him while I was dieting because I knew if I went in I would meet the Haig & Haig Brothers and would be off."

"I'm down to 220 now," Jackie pulled the top of his trousers forward and showed me the gap.

"This is the only suit I can wear now," he added happily.

"What about your own new half-hour show?" I asked. We were in the City Center Ballroom, downstairs, where he's been rehearsing for the Playhouse 90 show. We sat talking across a table that was bare except for a couple of discarded coffee cartons.

"I haven't even thought about it yet," he insisted. "But we'll have offices at CBS on the midtown edifice'll be up in Peekskill, where I've built a whole building."

"Could you tell me what Buddy Hackett'll do?" I asked.

"No. Somebody could easily steal the idea. But Buddy will first time will be seen as himself. He'll do characters, too, but there'll be times when he'll be Buddy Hackett."

"It's like with me. At times I come out as myself. Good or bad I come out as myself." He laughed. "I don't know whether that's a promise or a threat."

When I arrived I had witnessed an emotional scene. Jackie had been listening to recordings of these two songs he'd composed, "Just One Yesterday" and "So Long, Lover." He didn't like the recordings and bent over with head down, looking at the floor, controlling his disappointment.

"Man made a mistake trying to save money," he explained now. "The easiest way in the world to waste a lot of money is to try too hard to save some."

"Remember when everybody said you made a mistake filming, 'The Honeymooners' instead of doing them live?" I asked. "How much have you made from that series now?"

"About four million," he said. "I sold them to CBS and they leased them to NBC. Now in five years I get them back again and can resell them. I also have the right to make a new series — which a lot of people want me to do."

But for a variety show such as he'll do now, "that should be done under live conditions—I can't go along with dubbed laughs."

"I'm too big a ham to appreciate a laugh that Fred Allen got on radio 30 years ago and is now on some sound track," he said.

The fact that he'll be appearing Friday night pleased him.

"I was on Friday before — against 'The Fights' — remember? We had a 6 rating and they had a 22. We wound up with a 27 and they had a 4. That's when CBS moved in."

That's when Jackie was taken from Dumont. "What year was that?" I asked Jackie.

"Forty-nine or 50. Toots will know the exact date. That was the year I joined to pay a check in his joint."

"Will the quiz show scandals possibly help comedy shows?"

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Nominee for TV Wife

HOLLYWOOD — I hope Studebaker won't hate me for this but I hear the company's TV plans for its 1959 "surprise" are sensational — the commercials to center on Studebakers' miniature new low-cost station wagon called The Lark, that reportedly will get 35 miles per gallon.

My nominee for George Gobel's new TV wife, to succeed Jeff Donnell, is a pert-and-pretty actress named Janet Stewart who not only looks Jeff-Donnellable but whose talent-looks are thoroughly saleable — and completely unassailable — besides which Miss Stewart's services are available! Go get 'er, George, and get me to the church on time.

I DON'T KNOW why the boys over at Warner-TV keep insisting the currently shooting segment of their 77 Sunset Strip series has nothing to do with Gen. "Ramfis" Trujillo. After all, they've built a yacht on the soundstage and the script is about a rich South American who gives away foreign cars to American beauties.

TV actress Leona Anderson is branching out with an LP album her first, titled, "Songs to Suffer By — The Worst of Leona Anderson."

BOB HOPE, LIKE Bob Cummings, keeps bob-bob-bobbing along on the theory that nothing looks better on a TV screen than a pretty girl. Hope once more has harpooned a deal to telecast the Deb Stars chosen by Hollywood's makeup artists at their annual ball, Sept. 26 at the Hollywood Palladium. The dolls will debut on Bob's second show of the fall season, for Buick, on NBC-TV.

George Burns' "al-new" show, minus Gracie Allen, won't be so new after all. Aside from the guest stars he's snaring to replace his mate, George's line-up will be strictly Old — Home Week with the same old regulars Bea Benadaret, Harry Von Zell, Larry Keating and Ronnie Burns plus producer-director Rod Amateau and the same writers as before . . . Proving that the torch of loyalty burns brightly in Burns' big, big heart.

OFFBEAT WESTERN star signed by producer Dick Powell for his "Thread of Respect" segment in the Zane Grey Theatre series: Edward G. Robinson. Again, Richard? . . . The new-season You Asked For It upheaval is on the offbeat side too (and can't you just hear those sponsors shouting, "We gotta give the viewers something different if you wanna keep em viewing?")

You'll be seeing Liberace demonstrating his skeeching ability on a drawing board, Audie Murphy showing how he trains his quarter-horses (a profitable hobby for Audie), Pat O'Brien reliving his most famous movie role, that of Knute Rockne, and Jackie Cooper playing the drums

Pier Angeli asked 20th-Fox to turn Jennifer Jones' Oscar-winning, "The Song of Bernadette," at a private screening — and is that because Pier will star in Westinghouse Playhouse's leadoff for the season on CBS-TV Oct. 13, "Bernadette?"

Incidentally, the spiritual-looking Miss Angeli seems to me a perfect choice for Little Bernadette Soubirous of Lourdes. And "Bernadette," in view of the intensified interest in the Shrine chosen by The Blessed Virgin to work her miracles, seems to me a perfect choice to start the season, the day after Holy Name Sunday . . . Sal Mineo's word for TV spectaculars that are "square": Rectangulars.

Janis Family Is Home from Summer Abroad

It was a wonderful trip to Europe and they had lots of fun and excitement, but like all travelers, the Sam Janis family was happy this week just to be back in Palm Springs.

Dixie and Sam and their two children Milo and Michael, and Mrs. Janis's sister Frances Munzer of St. Louis, sailed from New York Harbor, aboard the Britannica on July 10.

They landed in Ireland, went on to visit London, and then to the Worlds Fair in Brussels. The party toured Luxembourg, Germany and spent a week in Switzerland.

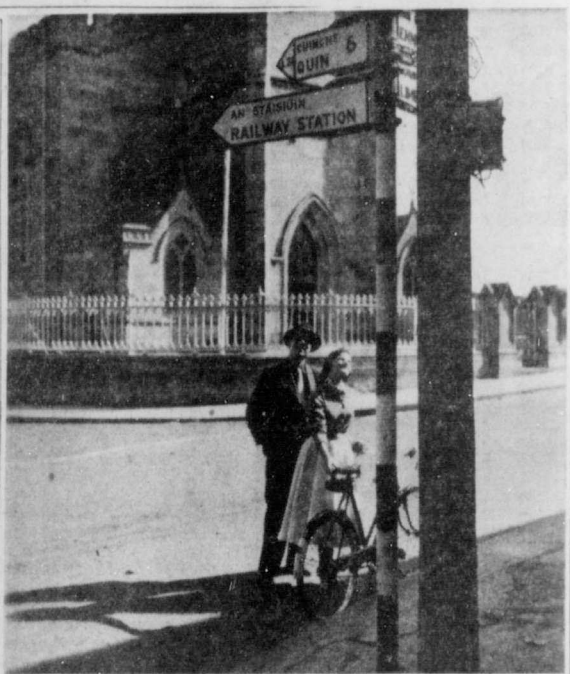

Sam went into Yugoslavia to visit relatives, leaving his family in Switzerland.

They were in Rome for a week, toured the palace in Monaco, and saved Paris for the last.

Sailing aboard the French liner Flandre, they detoured for 300 miles to avoid hurricane "Daisy."

SNYDICATED COLUMNIST Stan Delaplane, champion of Irish Coffee, holds a glass of his favorite drink while his daughter, Kristine, models an Irish tweed suit and aran knitted tam in the duty-free shop at Shannon Airport.

Juliette Gordon Low was founder of the Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. She organized the group in 1912 at Savannah, Ga.

STAN DELAPLANE, who writes daily for The Desert Sun, and his daughter, Kristine, who has been named "Miss Teenage Ambassador to Ireland," tour the town of Ennis, on the way to the Abbey at Quin.

Calls Women Copy Cats and Timid About Decorating

By GAY PAULEY

UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK — (UPI) — We women behave like a bunch of Mrs. Milquetoasts in our home decorating, says Mrs. Beverly Reitz. "Timid souls," said Mrs. Reitz, a decorator for 20 years. "And copy cats," she added, in describing most of us do-it-yourselfers.

"Timidity shows in the way a woman follows exactly what everyone is doing, in being afraid to have a house different from all the others on the block.

"It shows in color schemes, in the monotony of the all-grey or all-beige or other muddy color plans.

"My advice to the home-maker always is, don't be timid, but do be careful. Select accessories and furniture with thought; they will be around for a long time."

If you're unsure of yourself in decorating, Mrs. Reitz offered one cure: Knowledge. "Study books on the subjects, read newspapers and magazines; developing taste in dress. The more you know, the surer you become."

Mrs. Reitz, a native of Oak Ridge, Mo., and wife of a New York banker, is one of the designers represented at the 9th annual National Home Furnishings Show which opened at the Coliseum today.

She planned the decor for the living, dining and foyer areas of a model, five-room house built and furnished by Eastman Chemical Products, makers of synthetic fabrics.

She centered the color scheme around green and gold. "I'm a great believer in gold for curtains," said the decorator in an interview. "They give any house a feeling of sunshine."

"It hink a house should reflect what the family is, and also what it hopes to become," she continued. "It should give an indication of the family's intellectual and artistic nature; if a family loves good music, include a hi-fi set . . . loves art, start with at least one good picture."

"And I don't think money has much to do with a tasteful home; I've seen wonderful results on a schoolteacher's salary."

IT'S BACK TO SCHOOL TIME

Palm Springs Traffic Divisions Pleads...

PROTECT OUR CHILDREN

drive carefully!

NICK MAIFF, Acting Sergeant of Palm Springs Traffic Division

WHY?

CARELESS--NESS...

Only a careless moment at the wheel of a car... and look, that's WHY.

DRIVE CAREFULLY, PLEASE!

BE "VIGILANT" every moment you're at the wheel of a car.

SLOW DOWN...AND LIVE!

School bells will soon be ringing, and our streets and roads will be filled with children heading back to school! This means that you as a driver must be extra-careful, extra-alert! Drive slowly for the sake of the children — YOUR CHILDREN! Remember, they're young, eager, sometimes unpredictable... they MAY see you... BE SURE you see them! Is a child's life worth five minutes?... then remember now to always drive slowly! Is a child's life worth a little attention?... then remember now to always drive carefully! From here on in watch out for school busses and give them every courtesy. Watch out for children walking to and from school, children waiting for the bus at corners, children at play... for they may dart into the street after a ball! It's your responsibility to drive slowly, carefully and be alert to every possible emergency! SAVE A CHILD'S LIFE!

Follow These Safety Rules and Save a Life!

DON'T...

drive a mechanically unsafe car. Make sure brakes, steering wheel, tires are perfect!

DON'T...

ever exceed the legal speed limit; drive even slower if traffic conditions warrant it!

DON'T...

let your attention wander to your companions, the scenery! An alert driver is an alive driver!

DON'T...

forget to check yourself as well as your car. Don't drive if you're overtired or sleepy!

DON'T...

leave your courtesy at home! Obey road rules, drive so as to protect pedestrians and drivers!

DON'T...

drink if you're driving! Even "one for the road" may make it the end of the road for you!

DO...

obey all traffic regulations, markings and signals! Always be courteous, alert, cautious!

Berkey, Suess Named County Representatives

Supervisor George Berkey and Planning Director Tyler Suess were appointed this week by the Board of Supervisors to serve as official representatives for Riverside County in the development of the state master recreation plan.

The appointments were made following receipt of a letter from William R. MacDougall, general counsel and manager for the County Supervisors Association of California, suggesting that appointees be named to serve as official contacts for the state's technical staff.

He said such appointments by supervisors of the various counties throughout the state would assure maintenance of liaison between the two governmental agencies.

TODAY'S SPORT PARADE

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press International

NEW YORK — (UPI) — Memo to fellow sportswriters:

Seems we're about to get what we deserve. And hold on now, before you go jumping out the press box window, this is good. Television is going to show just what fine, courageous types we really are:

ALL OF THIS will start coming about Oct. 8 when NBC begins a new series about a gent named "Bat" Masterson. He was, as you recall, a sports columnist for the New York Morning Telegraph a few years back after having trained as a buffalo hunter, Indian scout and sheriff.

But the advance publicity at least, plays heavily on the fact he was a sports writer for 18 years. And I've got to allow they're pretty honest about us fellows because they label sportswriter Bat as — and I quote — "a dapper charmer, swift thinker and man of intelligence, strength, courage and action."

IT'S A PROGRAM which figures prove times don't change. Because research discloses Bat was a man who waxed wrath and irate (got mad) when there were fistic "upsets" which didn't seem to be sweetly aromatic.

Once, after a Madison Square Garden bout between Sam Langford and Joe Jeannette, who fought more often than Eddie and Debbie he wrote:

"If Joe and Sam were trying Friday night — and thinking it over, I've concluded they were both as fine as a pair of prize ring bums as I ever say. But understand, I'm only one of a very few men who believe they were trying. Ninety per cent of the crowd was convinced it was a frameup."

IF THAT HAS a slightly familiar ring, it just goes to prove boxing hasn't changed a bit. You probably wrote the identical words the last time you covered a fight.

The only thing puzzles me is why they had to dig back so far to find someone to bear our gonfalon, as we are wont to say.

Maybe these twelve guys never heard of John Mooney, out in Salt Lake City. One night he staged a charity rassing show and, when one of the headliners didn't show, John clumb through the ropes himself. Not only that, he won the bout. No gun neither.

THEN WE GOT guys like Red Grange, Tom Harmon, Boston College Til Perdeniz, W. & M.'s Al Heifer and Kentucky Russ Hodges from the gridiron; Princeton's Bud Palmer and Wyoming's Curt Gowdy from basketball; Olympic track man Marty Glickman and such baseballers as Dizzy Dean, Leo Durocher, Frankie Frisch, Waite Hoyt, Joe Garagiola and Rex Barney now in the press box.

So they won't have to strain for material if they run a bit short with whatever "Bat" did.

The one I'd like to see 'em shoot is the blizzardy night at Bear Mountain when Jud Bailey and old Fearless headed for the top of the ski slide with a to-boggan.

Nice to be able to report they stopped us. But it looks like at last we've got it made, fellows.

Rams Edge Forty-Niners

Jon Arnett, John Brodie Star in Game

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The Los Angeles Rams racked up a comfortable 17-point lead in the first half against the San Francisco Forty-Niners Friday night but they won the game by only a slim margin of 40-38.

Jon Arnett provided the early thrills of the National League football exhibition game when he completed a 71-yard pass play from quarterback Bill Wade and then made an 87-yard punt return to set up another score which gave the Rams a 27-10 lead at halftime before 62,546 fans.

BUT IT WAS John Brodie, second string 49er quarterback who came in the second half and completed 21 out of 30 passes for three touchdowns, who nearly stole the show.

Paige Cothren's educated toe saved the day for the Rams in the closing three minutes when he kicked his fourth field goal of the game and gave the Los Angeles team its 2-point edge. The Rams had been favored to win by 3 points.

SCORE BY PERIODS:
Rams 6 21 0 13-40
49ers 0 10 7 21-38

Jacobs Leads Centennial Open

DENVER (UPI) — Tommy Jacobs, a youngster who has many years of golf ahead, can prove today he is more than just a guy who fades when the late-round tournament pressure starts to become a factor.

The 23-year-old pro went into today's third round of the 72-hole Centennial Open at the Wellshire municipal course with a two-stroke lead over his nearest competitor. But Jacobs, who led this far in the Western Open at Detroit earlier this year, has never been in front after more than 36 holes of play.

Senators Sign Three

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Pitchers Joe Bonkowski, a Philadelphia sandlot and American Legion star, and Jack Kralick of Wyandotte, Mich., have been signed to bonus contracts by the Washington Senators. The Senators also signed first baseman Darwin Snyder of Detroit.

Ready to Defend Title

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (UPI) — Light-heavyweight champion Archie Moore says he is ready to defend his title against Yvon Durelle at Montreal on Dec. 10. Moore said he has received a $100,000 offer for the bout with the Canadian.

Burdette, Turley Ready for Series

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International
Lew Burdette and Bob Turley, the probable starters for the opening game of the World Series, have convinced their managers they're both ready to go right now.

There was really "nothing" to choose between them Friday night.

Burdette pitched a three-hit 6-0 shutout over the Cardinals to reduce the Braves pennant-clinching "magic number" to six, while Turley hurled a four-hit 5-0 shutout against the White Sox to shave the Yankees' combination to three.

HANK AARON made Burdette's 17th victory a breeze when he drove in four of Milwaukee's runs with his 29th homer and a triple. Aaron also had a double to boost his batting average to .336, only three points below the leading .339 figure of Philadelphia's Richie Ashburn.

The victory for Turley was his 21st of the year and he thus became the first Yankee pitcher to reach that total since 1951 when Ed Lopat and Vic Raschi both equaled it. The Yankees clinched the game with a three-run burst off Ray Moore in the fourth inning.

CLEVELAND EDGED Boston, 5-4, Detroit beat Baltimore, 3-1, and Kansas City whipped Washington, 4-3, in other American League games.

In the National League, San Francisco took a pair from Philadelphia, 5-2, and 19-2, Chicago defeated Cincinnati, 7-5, and Los Angeles licked Pittsburgh, 7-3.

Machen Favored Over Johansson In Sunday Bout

GOTHENBURG, Sweden (UPI) — Eddie Machen of Redding, Calif., is expected to try for an early knockout when he meets Sweden's unbeaten Ingemar Johansson Sunday in their battle of world heavyweight contenders.

Machen is rated a 2-1 choice but European observers believe Johansson can outpoint the hard-hitting American if the rugged Swede survives the first four rounds.

Machen is the world's second-ranked heavyweight contender while Johansson is ranked No. 6.

Round Table Bids for Money Honors Today

MAYS LANDING, N.J. (UPI) — Round Table, who has compiled a brilliant record over three seasons of racing, attempts to add the world money-winning championship to his accomplishments today in the $100,000 United Nations Handicap at Atlantic City.
